

Sliabh Liag

With breathtaking scenery, golden beaches, rugged islands, outdoor adventure, the Gaeltacht and a beautiful array of activities, Donegal - is an absolute essential, at any time of year. Malin Head marks the most northerly point of the entire island of Ireland; the start of your Wild Atlantic Way adventure.

The most recent Star Wars film: Episode VIII was filmed on the rolling hills of the Inishowen Peninsula and Ballyliffin Golf Club proudly hosted the Irish Open this summer. Inishowen sets the tone for the spirit of the county – independent, untamed and exciting, three quarters of its border formed by the Atlantic Ocean.

National Geographic Traveller named Donegal as the Coolest Place on the Planet for 2017 and for good reason... Donegal will take you to a magical adventure into a region that is so special. Culture springs to life around every corner - ancient castles, the spectacular Sliabh Liag Cliffs – one of the highest in Europe, rugged islands and coastlines, the friendliest natives and so much to see and do makes for an unforgettable adventure.

Fly to Donegal Airport - No. 1 Most Scenic Airport Landing in the world for 2018, tee off at some of the world's most renowned golf courses, sample delicious locally produced food and don't forget throwing yourself into one of Donegal's festivals. With a coastline of 1,134km Donegal is the perfect place for those looking for an outdoor, action packed holiday - wind surfing, kayaking, sea stack climbing, cycling and walking are becoming ever popular with exciting guided destinations. Donegal really is a land of great diversity, gentle rolling farmland provide a stark contrast to the dramatic, rugged coastline.... Donegal has it all!
